Opperssively Bot Weather and Considerable Bust.

Datlas, Sre. July 8.—This was the hottest day of the season, the mercury registering 102 degrees in the shade. The water famine in the city is alarming, as the city water works are aimed dry, and all but first spiples are cut of, and for that purpose there spiles are cut of, and for that purpose there is great inconvenience. The City Council is being bitterly denounced for its slowness in securing an efficient supply. The dust is most stifling, there being no water for sprinking and the securing and efficient supply. The dust is most stifling, there being no water for sprinking will be enough to guard against fire, as a pump is being put into Trinity River to feed the fire reservoirs.

Blaine used to tell a story to express the feeling of Republicans toward the administration of Mr. Hayes, but it applies better to their feelings rey young men were camping out in the Maine woods. One was selected to cook; and it was agreed that the first man who compained of the cutines hold assume the duties of cook himself. The hare was with an effort. One day some pie was served that was thought more villainous than anything that had gone before it. The man at the head of the table looked around upon the faces of his companions, nearer akin to rebellion was pictured upon the face of his visa-vis than upon the countenance of any other of the unfortunates. Addressing his meweely, he said: "What do you think of this pie?" came: "I think it is about the blank blankedest pie that I ever—" And then the agreement flashed across the speaker, and with a beaming countenance and tone demoniac of delight, he bastened to add: "But like it."
